Five states were excluded from the list of states in this chart, due to a sample size that was too small: Alaska, Delaware, Hawaii, North Dakota, and South Dakota.

Below poverty = less than 100% of the federal poverty level

Near poverty = greater than or equal to 100% of the federal poverty level, but less than 150% of the federal poverty level

Below or near poverty = less than 150% of the federal poverty level (below poverty & near poverty combined)

Center, University of Minnesota: <https://usa.ipums.org/usa/cite.shtml>. The data is based on the American Community Survey 5-year Sample 2008-2012. The data for market states was retrieved 3/6/2015; other states' data was retrieved 3/18/2015.

For a detailed look at the methodology, please see the document "Faculty Poverty Data Methodology Summary (March 25, 2015) Legal."
